Exhibit and Sponsorship Opportunities

Put your business at the center of what's next.

Optica Events give exhibitors and sponsors a focused opportunity to meet the people advancing optics and photonics. Across an international community of industry leaders, decision-makers and emerging talent, you can introduce new solutions, strengthen existing relationships and create opportunities for growth.

With typically 400–800 engaged participants, each event is large enough to connect you with a broad range of perspectives and personal enough for conversations that matter. It's a chance to do more than gain visibility, you can take part in the discussions shaping your market.

Make the most of your participation:

Demonstrate Your Expertise: Put your innovations in front of the people shaping the field.

Raise Your Profile: Keep your brand visible among influential attendees.

Meet the Right People: Build relationships with potential customers, partners and employees.

Listen and Learn: Understand the challenges and priorities that will guide future decisions.
